majored in communications and, as a scholarship athlete, was a four-year starter at defensive back and a return specialist for the football team, garnering All-CIAA and All-American honors. He also was the team's punter, a member of the track team and president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

He holds a master of sports science degree from the United States Sports Academy in Daphne, Ala., and a certificate of fund raising management from the Center on Philanthropy at Indiana University and will graduate in May with the executive doctorate degree in higher education management from the University of Pennsylvania.

He is married to the former Ms. Maisah Muwwakkil, and they have three children — Brittany, Jordan and Tysan.

This Week in History

The supertanker Exxon Valdez runs aground on a reef off southern Alaska on March 24, 1989, resulting in the worst oil spill in U.S. territory; the Triangle Shirtwaist Co. factory in New York City burns down on March 25, 1911, killing 145 workers, leading to laws and regulations that better protected workers; on March 26, 1979, Egyptian President Anwar el-Sadat and Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin sign a historic peace agreement, ending three decades of hostilities between Egypt and Israel; Oregon defeats Ohio State 46–33 on March 27, 1939 to win the first NCAA men's basketball tournament; a near-meltdown occurs at the Three Mile Island nuclear power plant on March 28, 1979.

Announcements

- The Club will hold an off-site meeting on Tuesday, March 31, at Mercedes-Benz in Vance. Boxed lunches will be served followed by a short tour of the facility. The deadline to sign up is today (March 24). Choose one of four options for this meeting: 1) lunch only; 2) lunch and museum tour; 3) lunch and plant tour; 4) lunch, museum tour and plant tour. Due to security requirements at Mercedes, only 75 slots are available for the plant tour so sign up only if you are sure you will attend. Sign-up sheets and more information will be available at today's meeting.
- The club will host its next Honor Flight on May 6. For more information, please see Jordan Plaster.
