Jerry Shepherd

District Governor, Rotary International District 6860

Our own Jerry Shepherd, district governor for Rotary International District 6860 for 2014-15, will speak on this year's theme, "Light Up Rotary," polio eradication and what the district does.

District 6860 covers the northern half of Alabama and has 3,846 members in 56 clubs. Jerry is the official representative of Rotary International for the Tuscaloosa Rotary Club and the district this year. He is the 12th district governor from our club.

Jerry has been in Rotary since 1985.

He owned and operated camera stores and film processing labs in Orange County, California. In 2005 he retired to move back to Northport with his wife Kathy. He has two daughters and three grandchildren.

This Week in History

English archaeologist Howard Carter found King Tut's tomb on Nov. 4, 1922; "Meet the Press," the longest-running series in American broadcast history, debuted on Nov. 6, 1947; FDR was elected to a fourth consecutive term on Nov. 7, 1944.
