

Tuscaloosa Rotary Memorial Foundation Community Projects Grants

The Tuscaloosa Rotary Memorial Foundation (TRMF) was created by the Rotary Club of Tuscaloosa in 1971, as a separate legal entity to provide a vehicle for tax-deductible contributions to club projects.

From its first project in 1972-73 to the present, Rotary has raised and contributed more than $1 million to community organizations. Projects include the Rotary International Student Center of UA's campus, the Tuscaloosa Public Library, Salvation Army, Bama Theatre, Girls Scouts, Boy Scouts, and many others.

TRMF is seeking applicants for the upcoming grants to be awarded in late 2025. Proposals should address one of Rotary International's priorities:

- Peace Building and Conflict Resolution
- Disease Prevention and Treatment
- Water, Sanitation and Hygiene
- Maternal and Child Health
- Basic Education and Literacy (includes arts)
- Community Economic Development (includes arts)
- Protection or Improvement of the Environment
- Projects will be a brick and mortar project and the total award will be no more than $50,000. Deadline to apply is October 1, 2025
